ANALYSIS: During the reporting period, the Bureau of Land and Waste Management issued two Consent Orders for violations of the Hazardous Waste Management regulations. Respondent Rose Talbert Paint Company in Lexington, South Carolina, was assessed a civil penalty of $13,000.00 for violations that included failure to make an accurate hazardous waste determination, and for improper storage, labeling, and handling of hazardous waste. Respondent Robert Bosch Corporation was assessed a civil penalty of $16,000.00 for hazardous waste violations involving, among others, improper labeling, transporting, record keeping, and reporting issues.

Water Pollution Enforcement issued a Consent Order with an assessed civil penalty of $35,000.00 against Tiger Management & Investments, LLC, located in Pickens County, for failure to comply with a previously issued Department Order and for failure to operate and maintain its stormwater management and sediment controls resulting in discharging of sediment into waters of the State.

The Bureau of Air Quality issued a Consent Order against Respondent Southern Asphalt, located in Horry County, for open burn violations involved in the burning of land-clearing debris near two residential subdivisions. A civil penalty of $10,000.00 was assessed. Respondent is a repeat violator, having been previously issued Consent Orders for burning materials prohibited by the regulations.
